

Communication Strategies 1 (CS1)

Final Examination Information

- Organization of the CS1 final examination (final test)
  - There are four sections in the CS1 final test: Section I (Understanding Structures), Section II (Applying Strategies), Section III (Expressing Opinions), and Section IV (Vocabulary).
  - No listening comprehension test is included in the final test.
- Section I (Understanding Structures)
  - There are ten questions in this section, two questions from each unit (Unit 1 to Unit 5).
- Section II (Applying Strategies)
  - You will apply one of the structures you learned in the textbook and write a short conversation (role play).
- Section III (Expressing Opinions)
  - You will write an opinion about a given topic that is supported by two good reasons.
- Section IV (Vocabulary)
  - This section has twenty collocation questions based on “CS1 Weekly Vocabulary Lists with Collocations” (Week 1 to Week 14).
  - All the collocations in this section are taken from the collocation lists.
  - Each vocabulary question appears in the following form, where you are asked to choose the best word from A – D that completes all three collocations on the left.

<example>

exactly ____	A. determine
be used to ____	B. article
be impossible ____	C. cultural
	D. empty
- How to Prepare for Final Test
  - Review Unit 1 to Unit 5 of the CS1 textbook, along with the unit lecture videos. You need to pay close attention to the structure/strategy, examples, grammar review, and role plays in each unit.
  - Review “CS1 Weekly Vocabulary Lists with Collocations” (Week 1 to Week 14), which are available at the CS1 page of the CELESE website.
