

Communication Strategies 2 (CS2)

Final Examination Information

- Organization of the CS2 final examination (final test)
  - There are three sections in the CS2 final test: Section I (Understanding Structures), Section II (Expressing Opinions), and Section III (Vocabulary).
  - No listening comprehension test is included in the final test.
- Section I (Understanding Structures)
  - There are ten questions in this section, two questions from each unit (Unit 1 to Unit 5).
- Section II (Expressing Opinions)
  - You will write two opinions about given topics that meet the following conditions.
    - (1) Your opinions must have two reasons.
    - (2) Each reason must be supported by evidence.
    - (3) It must have a good transition sentence.
    - (4) It must have a good concluding sentence.
- Section IV (Vocabulary)
  - This section has twenty collocation questions based on “CS2 Weekly Vocabulary Lists with Collocations” (Week 1 to Week 14).
  - All the collocations in this section are taken from the collocation lists.
  - For 10 questions, you are asked to choose the best word that completes all given collocations (from collocations to a word). For another 10 questions, you are asked to choose all phrases that make the best collocations with a given word (from a word to collocations).
- How to Prepare for the Final Test
  - Review Unit 1 to Unit 5 of the CS2 textbook, along with the unit lecture videos. You need to pay close attention to the structure/strategy, examples, grammar review, and role plays in each unit.
  - Review “CS2 Weekly Vocabulary Lists with Collocations” (Week 1 to Week 14), which are available at the CS2 page of the CELESE website.
